

WWW.SDSTREETS.ORG

connect on facebook

WWW.SDSTREETS.ORG

connect on facebook

WWW.SDSTREETS.ORG

connect on facebook

WWW.SDSTREETS.ORG

connect on facebook

“SD Streets for People” is a grass-roots effort to bring a “Ciclovía” style event to San Diego.

A “Ciclovía” is an activity-based street fair. City streets are temporarily closed to automobile traffic and opened to people creating a temporary linear park

***** You may have seen the shared lane marking

consisting of a bicycle symbol with two chevrons

markings above the bicycle. This is a federally approved traffic marking that has been recently introduced to San Diego. It helps educate drivers and cyclists about cyclists’ legal right to the road. For more information go to: www.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shared\_lane\_marking

“SD Streets for People” is a grass-roots effort to bring a “Ciclovía” style event to San Diego.

A “Ciclovía” is an activity-based street fair. City streets are temporarily closed to automobile traffic and opened to people creating a temporary linear park

***** You may have seen the shared lane marking

consisting of a bicycle symbol with two chevrons

markings above the bicycle. This is a federally approved traffic marking that has been recently introduced to San Diego. It helps educate drivers and cyclists about cyclists’ legal right to the road. For more information go to: www.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shared\_lane\_marking

“SD Streets for People” is a grass-roots effort to bring a “Ciclovía” style event to San Diego.

A “Ciclovía” is an activity-based street fair. City streets are temporarily closed to automobile traffic and opened to people creating a temporary linear park

***** You may have seen the shared lane marking

consisting of a bicycle symbol with two chevrons

markings above the bicycle. This is a federally approved traffic marking that has been recently introduced to San Diego. It helps educate drivers and cyclists about cyclists’ legal right to the road. For more information go to: www.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shared\_lane\_marking

“SD Streets for People” is a grass-roots effort to bring a “Ciclovía” style event to San Diego.

A “Ciclovía” is an activity-based street fair. City streets are temporarily closed to automobile traffic and opened to people creating a temporary linear park

***** You may have seen the shared lane marking

consisting of a bicycle symbol with two chevrons

markings above the bicycle. This is a federally approved traffic marking that has been recently introduced to San Diego. It helps educate drivers and cyclists about cyclists’ legal right to the road. For more information go to: www.wikipedia.org/wiki/Shared\_lane\_marking